Aloha,

We the Japanese Cultural Center of Kona (JCKK), a 501(c)(3) nonprofit corporation humbly request your support to acquire a magnificent 50-acre parcel above the Mormon Temple in the heart of Kailua Kona. The funds raised at the golf tournament will be for acquisition of property to develop a cultural hub in West Hawaii as a well-planned gathering place with convenient and organized parking for over 500 vehicles.

Please visit the website JapaneseCulturalCenterofKona.com or scan the QR code attached, to learn more about this exciting project with multiple components. The project has great momentum, thanks to a great team of volunteer Board members and supportive professional consultants assembled from beyond the Hawaii borders. The plan is to develop 30 acres that will include a concert hall, Japanese gardens, teahouse, multipurpose ballrooms, museum, a restaurant and much more. Imagine bringing friends and family to one of the many events once the Center is developed.

We humbly ask you to join the effort in developing a Center for everyone, locals, and visitors alike. You could participate as: 1) A SPONSOR, 2) DONOR OF PRIZES, or 3) A GOLFER. Further, any CASH DONATION will be greatly appreciated, every dollar counts. Please mail the following to P. O. Box 206, Kailua-Kona Hawaii 96745: (a) all checks along with entry forms for sponsorships and individual golfers, (b) check donations and (c) gift certificate prizes. Please email us about donated prizes not appropriate for the P. O. Box. We will arrange for pick up.

Your participation will help assure JCKK's goal of acquiring the 50-acre parcel with fee simple ownership this 2025. Thank you for joining. Please refer questions to Co-Chairs Bill Miller or Tony Takai.

Sincerely,

Bill Miller, Co-Chair
